Congratulations to the ICLR on a wonderful launch to their new online product.

We have just been googled at both our Fleet Street shop and at the main shop in Lincoln's Inn Archway. You can now take a virtual tour of the inside of our two shops. Go to our website homepage and click on 'See inside Wildy's'.

The cover this month is a photo of Petra. A brave team of advisers, friends, provider partners and staff set off for Jordan on Sunday (9 October), for the 11th Openwork Foundation Cycle Challenge. John Sinkins was unable to join the Cycle Challenge this year but he and everyone at Wildy's support their efforts.

We hope to visit with our overseas customers at the IBA conference in Dubai at the start of November. John Sinkins, Steven Ross and Charlie Alpera will be there to greet all our friends on stand 56.

Brazier, Margaret; Cave, Emma, Medicine, Patients and the Law 5th ed, Penguin Books, Paperback, £22.00, ISBN: 9780241952597

Medicine, Patients and the Law is a leading book in its field, aimed at practitioners and students of both law and medicine, as well as the general reader. It examines the regulation of medical practice, the rights and duties of patients and their medical advisers, the provision of compensation for medical mishaps and the framework of rules governing those delicate issues of life and death where medicine, morals and the law overlap. The fifth edition of this highly acclaimed book is fully updated to cover recent changes in law and medical practice. Clear explanations of legal issues make this book accessible and absorbing.

Bruce, Martha, Rights and Duties of Directors 11th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £98.00, ISBN: 9781847666994

The new, 11th edition of Rights and Duties of Directors is a highly practical and comprehensive publication relevant to all company directors and their advisers. It clearly explains the rights and powers of directors and their specific duties as prescribed by company law and legislation.

Cape, Ed; Luqmani, Jawaid, Defending Suspects at Police Stations: The Practitioner's Guide to Advice and Representation 6th

ed, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781903307830

Ed Cape's authoritative guidance is unrivalled. Comprehensive yet highly accessible and practical, Ed Cape provides the answers to everyday practical questions and problems. Initial chapters explain the basic principles of defending clients at the investigative stage and examine the key provisions of PACE and the Codes of Practice. Subsequent chapters tackle the various stages of advising a client including taking instructions, advising on 'silence', interview strategies, samples and searches, identification procedures and the charge decision. The book includes dedicated chapters on advising and assisting vulnerable clients, and on enforcement of the PACE and Code provisions. It also contains expert guidance on immigration detainees and the complex and unfamiliar aspects of immigration law that apply.

Darbyshire, Penny, Sitting in Judgment: The Working Lives of Judges, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £27.50, ISBN: 9781849462396

Given unprecedented access to the whole range of courts – from magistrates' courts to the Supreme Court – Penny Darbyshire spent seven years researching the judges, accompanying them in their daily work, listening to their conversations, observing their handling of cases and the people who come before them, and asking them frank and searching questions about their lives, careers and ambitions. What emerges is without doubt the most revealing and compelling picture of the modern judiciary in England and Wales ever seen. From it we learn that not only do the old stereotypes not hold, but that modern 'baby boomer' judges are indeed representative of the people they serve and that the reforms are working. But this new book also gives an unvarnished glimpse of the modern courtroom which shows a legal system under stress, lacking resources but facing an ever increasing case load.

Hoffman, David, The Impact of the UK Human Rights Act on Private Law, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781107009325

has had a profound effect in numerous private law decisions and has been the subject of extensive academic debate, in particular on the issue of the extent to which it has horizontal effect and its application in disputes between individuals. With contributions from a variety of academics and practitioners, this volume covers and contributes to the academic debate on horizontal effect and considers how theory matches up with case law; the limits of the Act for private law; and its impact on key areas including privacy, defamation, negligence, nuisance, property, commercial law and employment. Together, the book provides a practical critique of the areas discussed, which will be of academic interest to theorists and of practical benefit to lawyers and judges who wish to understand how the academic debates can be brought to bear in particular cases.

Holden, Andrew, Trust Protectors, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9781846612527
This new definitive work on trust protectors explains the role and appointment of a protector, their powers and duties including fiduciary capacity, how a protector can be removed from office and the relationship with the trustees. It will cite authorities from various jurisdictions including: Australia, Bahamas, BVI, Canada, Cayman Islands, Cook Islands, England and Wales, Guernsey, Isle of Man, Jersey, New Zealand and the USA. In addition precedents are included which will assist with drafting protector clauses in trust documents.

Howarth, William; Jackson, Simon, Wisdom's Law of Watercourses 6th ed, Shaw & Sons Ltd, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780414045040
The sixth edition of Wisdom's Law of Watercourses provides a comprehensive account of the law relating to streams, rivers, estuaries, lakes and related waters within a reasonable compass. It considers general common law characteristics of watercourses and coastal waters, natural and acquired rights of water, artificial watercourses and underground water, ferries, bridges and fisheries. It also covers water regulation and surveys statutes concerned with water management responsibilities, water resources, water pollution, flood defence, and fisheries.

Lawson, Richard; Singleton, Susan, Commercial Contracts: A Practical Guide to Standard Terms 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781847668677

This new edition is an invaluable guide to the practical aspects of drafting and interpreting commercial contracts. It provides useful background and detailed advice on the law surrounding a wide range of commercial agreements including: key common clauses; when to use standard terms; procedures and good practice; termination of contracts; remedies for breach; and the specific issues relating to export, software and consumer contracts.

Lee, Natalie (originally Whitehouse), Revenue Law: Principles and Practice 29th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781847667663

Revenue Law now in its 29th edition, is a highly respected work and leading textbook

Malcolm, Rosalind; Pointing, John, Statutory Nuisance: Law and Practice 2nd ed, Oxford University Press,

Paperback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780199564026

Statutory Nuisance: Law and Practice offers a comprehensive resource for practitioners in the legal and environmental health professions, guiding the reader through the complex practical and legal issues associated with statutory nuisance. It focuses on the problems that local authorities face in enforcing this area, as well as the issues facing those advising defendants. This title examines the role, powers, and duties of the local authorities, and the problems associated with drafting abatement notices and with the prosecution of nuisances. It also covers defences and proceedings brought by private individuals against neighbours and local authority landlords.

McCormac, Kevin; Wallis, Peter; Brown, Philip; Swift, Kathryn; Wilkinson, Wilkinson's Road Traffic Offences 25th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, 2 Volumes, £319.00, ISBN: 9780414045774

As the definitive authority on road traffic offences in England and Wales, Wilkinson's Road Traffic Offences covers every facet of road traffic law you are likely to encounter, whatever the situation. It provides an unbeatable combination of in-depth analysis with a user-friendly format so that the answers you need are readily to hand.

Nicholls, Colin ; Daniel, Tim; Barcares, Alan; Hatchard, John, Corruption and Misuse of Public Office 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £165.00, ISBN:

9780199577279

The law and practice relating to corruption and the misuse of public office is of increasing topical importance. The first edition of this book provided a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the law relating to corruption as it had been shaped over recent years.

Peel, Edwin, Treitel: The Law of Contract 13th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £36.95, ISBN: 9781847039217

Wildy's Book of the Month: October 2011

This guide has become the indispensable source of reference and argument for all students and practitioners of contract law. The latest edition follows the classic structure for the teaching of contract, going through formation; contents; vitiating factors; capacity and parties; performance; breach; termination; and remedies. It examines, and offers resolutions to, controversial and problematic points of law.

Saunders, Roy, International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques 2011/2012, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £350.00, ISBN:

9780414022683

International Tax Systems and Planning Techniques is an annual publication providing expert analysis of the law relating to international tax systems, and how each operates in cross-border transactions. It presents a clear and precise treatment from each jurisdiction of international tax law, how they function and the differences between them.

Scorey, David; Geddes, Richard; Harris, Chris, Bermuda Form: Interpretation and Dispute Resolution of Excess Liability Insurance, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £125.00, ISBN: 9780199583614

Providing analysis and interpretation on the construction of the Bermuda Form this book also addresses the dispute resolution process and covers the legal and practical issues which arise in the international arbitration of large and complex disputes under it. This book is a valuable guide even for experienced practitioners in this difficult area of the law, adding significantly to the nascent body of information on the analysis, interpretation and construction of the Bermuda Form.

Scriven, John; Pritchard, Nigel; Cocker, Dan, EPC Contracts and Major Projects: A Guide to Construction and other Project Contracts 2nd ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardcover, £215.00, ISBN: 9780414045187

This new edition provides highly practical guidance on the components of construction contracts for major infrastructure projects. Focusing in particular on EPC contracts and the construction aspects of PFI projects, it goes step-by-step through the contracting process, from the conceptual idea, the choice of a contractor and form of contract, to the preparation of the contract itself. NOTE: this new edition was previously announced as A Contractual Guide to Major Construction Projects

Shelton, Dinah, International Law and Domestic Legal Systems: Incorporation, Transformation, and Persuasion, Oxford University Press, Hardcover, £125.00, ISBN: 9780199694907

Different countries incorporate and interpret international law in different ways. This book provides a systematic analysis of the domestic constitutional regime of over two dozen countries, setting out the status accorded to international law in those countries and its normative weight, as well as problems relating to its implementation. This country-by-country comparison allows the book to examine how the international legal order and domestic legal systems interact and influence each other. Through a series of chapters on the role of international law in 27 countries throughout the world, it shows a growing tendency towards greater democratic participation in treaty-making coupled with a significant utilization of informal agreements that by-pass such participation, as well as a role for non-binding normative instruments as persuasive authority in domestic judicial decision-making.

The Right Honourable Lord Justice Hooper; Ormerod, David;, Blackstone's Criminal Practice 2012 (Book & eBook Pack), Oxford University Press, Hardcover, Supplements + eBook, £325.00, ISBN: 9780199694464; Hardcover & Supplement 1 only, £245.00, ISBN: 9780199694389; Hardcover & Supplements 1, 2 and 3, £295.00, ISBN: 9780199694457

The Rt. Hon. Lord Justice Maurice Kay; Sime, Stuart; French, Derek, Blackstone's Civil Practice: The Commentary 2012, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £150.00,

ISBN: 9780199697076
Adopting the distinctive narrative approach based on the chronology of a claim, the book provides authoritative guidance on the process of civil litigation from commencement of a claim objective to enforcement of judgments. It addresses civil procedure in the county courts, the High Court, and the Supreme Court as well as more specialist matters such as insolvency proceedings, sale of goods, and human rights, providing expert analysis on a comprehensive level.

The Rt. Hon. The Lord Woolf; Woolf, Jeremy; The Rt. Hon. The Lord Eassie, Zamir & Woolf: The Declaratory Judgment 4th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd,

Hardback, £169.00, ISBN: 9780414041356

Given the emphasis of the Civil Procedure Rules on settlement and speedy resolution of disputes, declaratory proceedings are increasingly important. This edition of the definitive work on the subject explains the wide scope of the declaratory judgment as a public law remedy for both individuals and public bodies and shows how it can be used.

Wolf, Susan, Environmental Information Regulations, Law Society Publishing, Paperback, £59.95, ISBN: 9781853286391

International Project Finance Law and Practice

Edited by JOHN DEWAR

- The most detailed practitioner title on international project finance, combining extensive coverage with a wide focus on the international cross-border issues affecting project financings and relating to a wide variety of financing techniques
- Analysis of both English and New York law as well as consideration of civil law issues give a complete overview of practical issues
- Cross-sectoral application highlighting the structural, legal and contractual differences between different groups using project finance
- Examines the different funding sources used in the project finance industry
- Edited by an experienced lawyer from one of the leading firms in the area of project finance

Project Finance is used worldwide to structure and finance natural resource and infrastructure projects and practitioners must have a thorough grasp of the underlying principles of this specialist area. With a logical and helpful structure, this book addresses this need, providing a detailed analysis of practical issues and including checklists to give guidance on the structuring of projects.

Human Trafficking Handbook

“This excellent Handbook will not only contribute to a better understanding of the challenges presented by human trafficking but it will become an indispensable resource for all concerned with combating this pernicious trade.”

Sir Nicolas Bratza, European Court of Human Rights

The Human Trafficking Handbook brings together for the first time expert perspectives from a wide range of key participants in the struggle against human trafficking in the United Kingdom.

Edited and collated by award-winning human rights barrister Parosha Chandran, this precedent-setting text assembles the views of specialist lawyers, local authorities, doctors, non-governmental organisations, police officers and prosecutors as it surveys the major themes of human trafficking.

This Handbook is an essential anthology of opinion and analysis written by experienced, passionate professionals who play a vital role in today’s fight against modern-day slavery.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Misrepresentation, Mistake and Non-Disclosure 3rd edition

by Professor John Cartwright
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9780414049550, due November 2011, £215.00
This authoritative practitioner text fully explains the role of misrepresentation in contract law, and further expands on the role of mistake and non-disclosure in a contractual dispute. It provides a clear explanation into the definitions and differences between misrepresentation, mistake and non-disclosure and is structured around remedies available for misrepresentation, mistake and non-disclosure to give practical focus for practitioners. The new edition provides expert commentary on the Time-share, Holiday Products, Resale and Exchange Contracts Regulations 2010, which extend the scope of information duties in holiday contracts, and includes the Business Protection from Misleading Marketing Regulations 2008 and the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008. The author provides expert insight into the Law Commission's review of insurance law, including the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Bill 2011 on the basis that it is likely to be enacted shortly after publication of the book and will reform radically the remedies for misrepresentation and non-disclosure in consumer insurance contracts.

Vertical Agreements in EC Competition Law 2nd edition

by Frank Wijckmans, Alain Vanderelst and Filip Tuytschaever
Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199696413, due November 2011, £155.00
This book gives comprehensive coverage of EU distribution law and the law relating to vertical agreements. Now in its second edition, it is the only book to provide a detailed and practice oriented analysis of the entire scope of vertical agreements under the new legislative framework. Written by two authors who assisted the Commission in its drafting and reviewing of the Regulation, the book gives invaluable practical commentary on the new general block exemption (Regulation 330/2010), the new Motor Vehicle Block Exemption regulation (Regulation 461/2010), and the accompanying new Vertical Guidelines, as well as on agreements which are not covered by a block exemption. The authors consider issues directly relevant in the commercial world, answering questions such as: Under what conditions may a supplier impose territorial restrictions on his dealer network?: Is it possible to impose maximum retail prices?: Are customer restrictions permissible in a selective distribution system?: Can a supplier assume an exclusive supply obligation? Is an exclusive supply-back obligation included in a sub-contracting arrangement enforceable?

Law of Guarantees 6th edition

by Geraldine Andrews QC and Richard Millett QC
Sweet & Maxwell, ISBN 9780414044715, Hardcover, due December 2011, £235.00
Frequently cited in court, this text is the leading work on guarantees written by experts in their field; Millett and Andrews. A practitioner focused text examining the law and practice of guarantees and surety, it covers everything required for work in this area. This new edition provides a detailed analysis of the various statutory and contractual requirements relating to the law of guarantees. It provides workflow solutions in the format of checklists, specimen pleadings as well as 14 precedents for use in drafting, making your day-to-day work quicker and easier.

A Practitioner's Guide to the Regulation of Insurance 4th edition

Consultant Editor: John Young

Sweet & Maxwell, Softcover, ISBN 9780414048577, due November 2011, £125.00

Previously published by City & Financial Publishing, this fully revised title examines the UK and European regulatory regimes and their impact on the insurance industry, providing practical advice for compliance officers and professional advisers. It gives a complete overview of the insurance industry regulatory landscape following the far-reaching changes currently underway, and provides expert analysis and commentary on all aspects of the life and non-life insurance industries, from establishment, authorisation and ownership, to conduct of business and financial supervision. Includes full coverage of the Solvency II Directive and the implications of the new capital adequacy requirements, and addresses the advent of other European directives including the Acquisitions Directive; Reinsurance Directive; and Insurance Mediation Directive II. The new edition also provides details of EU-level structural changes including the new European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and its powers.

Commercial Property Litigation

by James Fieldsend and Paul McAndrews

Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback with CD-Rom, ISBN 9781846612572, due November 2011, £95.00

Commercial Property Litigation is a new authoritative handbook for property litigators. It combines an analysis of the relevant substantive law and procedure with practical know-how focusing on common issues and problems faced by the property litigator. The authors' explanatory commentary is supported by expertly drafted precedents, checklists, and extracts from key pieces of legislation and procedural rules, which are contained on an accompanying CD-Rom providing easy access to these time-saving precedent materials. Commercial Property Litigation will ensure that practitioners can be confident of having the relevant knowledge and clear guidance on the practice and procedure on how to deal with these difficult subjects.

Offshore Tax Planning 18th edition

by Giles Clarke

LexisNexis Butterworths, Hardback, ISBN 9781405757539, due November 2011, £154.95

Clarke's Offshore Tax Planning provides practical analysis of the planning opportunities for investment offshore through analysis of anti-avoidance legislation, extended treatment of non-domiciliaries and an examination of existing offshore structures. The practical nature of this book makes it an invaluable guide for accountants, solicitors and financial advisers handling the affairs of private clients and privately-owned businesses while annual publication ensures it is both up-to-date and relevant.

Construction Contract Claims 3rd edition

by Reg W. Thomas

Palgrave MacMillan, Hardback, ISBN 9780230242852, due November 2011, £50.00

Claims in construction contracts are on the increase. As more emphasis is put on time and money, many contracts get off to a bad start because of lack of pre-planning or just bad advice on the method of procurement of form of contract to be used. Both the initiator and recipient of claims are often partially responsible for claim situations escalating into expensive disputes. Many disputes can be avoided or settled amicably if the parties to them recognise the fundamental causes of claims and how they should be addressed. This book confronts all of the difficult problems that arise in claims situations in the UK and internationally. Extensive reference to UK and international case law and a systematic approach to various types of claims assisted by helpful and explanatory diagrams makes this book second to none as a 'trouble shooting' guide to presentation of, response to, and negotiation and settlement of claims. In addition to the general principles of law and contract in the UK and internationally and how they relate to construction claims, there are a number of examples which are specific to a wide range of UK, international and foreign forms of contract. The latest FIDIC international forms of contract and their problems are featured and some important pitfalls and comparisons with the Engineering and Construction Contract (NEC) add a new dimension to this edition.

Law and Regulation of Investment Management 2nd edition

Edited by Dick Frase
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9781847034878, due December 2011, £225.00
This concise and practical book provides you with in-depth analysis and legal advice on the law and regulation of investment management. It examines the legal issues raised by investment management including the nature of the client services relationship, conflicts of interest and corporate governance, custody, contractual matters, and fiduciary duties. With detailed coverage of the latest case law and legislation, this book is a welcome point of reference for both practitioners and academics.

Partnership Law 4th ed

by Mark Blackett-Ord and Sarah Haren

Bloomsbury Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781847665690, due November 2011, £275.00

The new edition of this well-regarded book has been reorganised and updated to cover all legislative changes and relevant case law. This new fourth edition is a comprehensive guide to the modern law of partnerships, Limited Partnerships and LLPs in England and Wales. Dealing fully with the modern practical issues inherent in setting up, running and dissolving a partnership, this authoritative text will provide you with a definitive statement of the law using modern terminology relevant to current business practice. This is essential reading for solicitors and barristers practising in all of the following fields: Partnership; Employment law; Venture capital; Corporate law; Private client work; Insolvency; and Commercial law.

Housing Law: An Adviser's Handbook 2nd edition

By Diane Astin

Legal Action Group, Softcover, ISBN 9781903307878, due November 2011, £48.00
Housing Law: an adviser's handbook is structured and written in a user-friendly way so that it is an indispensable handbook for the busy housing lawyer and yet accessible to the non-specialist adviser and student of housing law. Each chapter begins with key points and includes checklists and summaries in each section. The book is also fully supported by appendices including a glossary, procedural checklists and precedents. The author expertly covers the principles of occupiers' rights, different types of tenancies, disrepair and housing conditions, possession proceedings, homelessness and allocation of housing, housing benefit, community care accommodation, civil proceedings and challenges to decisions by public bodies.

Cohabitation: Law, Practice and Precedents 5th edition

by Helen Wood, Denzil Lush, David Bishop and Ashley Murray

Jordan Publishing, Hardback with CD-Rom, ISBN 9781846612831, due November 2011, £90.00

The numbers of unmarried cohabiting couples continue to increase, with the result that the law and practice relating to this area continues to grow in significance for family and private client lawyers. This new edition of Cohabitation: Law Practice and Precedents has been extensively revised to take account of the Family Procedure Rules 2010 and includes a new section on welfare benefits, as well as analysis of significant case law such as the Supreme Court's ruling in Kernott v Jones. Whether preparing a cohabitation contract or ante-nuptial agreement, drafting wills for cohabiting couples, advising on rights on the breakdown of a relationship or the death of a partner, or applying for a personal protection order or a parental responsibility agreement, practitioners will find authoritative analysis of the applicable law and expert guidance on procedural issues. Cohabitation: Law, Practice and Precedents is the only work on the subject to provide commentary, checklists, procedural guides and precedents in a single volume making it an invaluable aid to all practitioners advising unmarried couples. This new edition comes with a CD-ROM containing all the precedents covered in the volume.

Employment Law Handbook 5th edition

by Henry Scrope and Daniel Barnett Law Society Publishing, Softcover, ISBN

9781907698002, due November 2011, £69.95

Now in its fifth edition, the Employment Law Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the main topics within employment law. Its easy-to-use format makes it an ideal reference guide for the non-specialist practitioner and a handy aide memoir for specialists. Fully updated, this new edition covers a range of key developments in employment law, such as the Equality Act 2010, changes in redundancy, maternity provisions and the retirement age, the developing regimes on age and disability discrimination and case law under TUPE 2006.

Construction Law

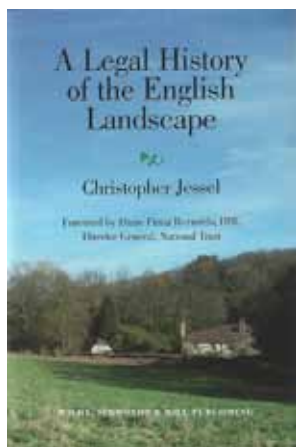

by Julian Bailey
Informa Publishing, Hardcover, 3 Volumes, ISBN 9781843119173, due November 2011, £425.00

This new book by Julian Bailey provides a detailed treatment to the major issues arising out of construction and engineering projects, with extensive references to case law, statutes and regulations, standard forms of contract and legal commentary. It is a "one stop shop" for busy practitioners with construction law issues, and presents a comprehensive view of the subject matter of construction law in England, Wales, Australia and internationally. Julian Bailey is a solicitor in the construction team at CMS Cameron McKenna's London office, and has specialised in contentious construction and engineering law since 1998.

Banking Litigation 3rd edition

Edited by Charles Hewetson and Nicholas Elliot QC
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9780414042346, due December 2011, £195.00
This new edition guides practitioners through the wide range of issues relevant to banking litigation, giving all the information needed to confidently deal with any dispute. It addresses the major areas of potential conflict, from disputes with domestic customers to those arising from global custodianship and international banking. Regulatory and procedural issues are explained, with extensive analysis of disclosure in banking litigation. In-depth coverage is provided of banking litigation, including lending and security, multiple claims faced by banks, and liability arising from investment and other advice. With an author team of expert solicitors and barristers, practitioners have access to detailed legal and practical guidance, helping to formulate clear objectives and strategies in banking litigation situations.

A LEGAL HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH LANDSCAPE

Christopher Jessel

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854900879
Extent: 226 pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

A Legal History of the English Landscape is an engaging account of how the law has played a pivotal role in shaping the English landscape through the concepts of security, inheritance, dispute resolution and transfer of land.

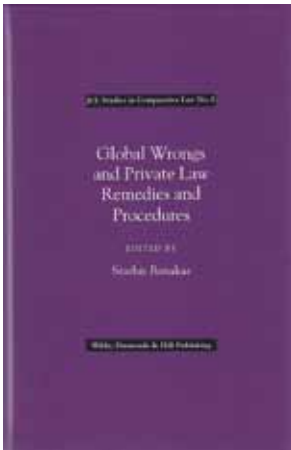

Adopting a broadly chronological approach, the book begins with prehistory and continues through Roman and Anglo-Saxon times. It examines the foundations of English land law as laid down by the Normans and developed throughout the Middle Ages. The author explores how landed property became seen as the focus of society by the seventeenth century and how ownership rights were protected to such an extent that they inhibited change. As society evolved, once-important laws became obsolete and the author shows how later generations were able to adapt or circumvent them for their own needs. The book describes how Parliament intervened to rearrange the landscape in the Enclosure Movement, authorised the building of roads, canals and railways and encouraged the development of industry and towns. The account concludes with a view of the modern law in an era of public access to land, environmental protection and European legislation. By setting land law in the wider context of changes in society,

Christopher Jessel joined Farrer & Co solicitors in 1967 and remained there subsequently as partner practising in rural and constitutional law until retirement in 2008. He is the author of Farms and Estates: A Conveyancing Guide, Development Land: Overage and Clawback and The Law of the Manor.

GLOBAL WRONGS AND PRIVATE LAW REMEDIES AND PROCEDURES

Edited by Stathis Banakas

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854900916
Extent: 266 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

This book is a collection of papers, revised and updated by their authors, originally presented at the Journal of Comparative Law Workshop on Global Wrongs and Private Law Remedies and Procedures that took place in London in July 2009. The essays look at a variety of global issues of individual, communal and social justice and the increasing role of private law remedies and procedures in addressing Global Wrongs, broadly defined as violations of personal or communal interests, whether already protected by domestic or international law, or emerging for protection for the first time in the dynamic of global communication, legal pluralism and the global exchange of ideas and values. Global wrongs are either international or transnational, such as harm that geographically transcends domestic jurisdictional frontiers, or for which domestic courts claim universal jurisdiction, or local, but common to several jurisdictions. The authors examine the role of private law in dealing with them in several different jurisdictions, including China, and draw important conclusions for global legal enforcement and legal development.

Stathis Banakas is a Reader in Law and Director of the LLB with American Law programme at the University of East Anglia, Norwich, England. He is an Attorney at Law (Dikigoros), and a member of the Athens Bar. He also teaches regularly the course on Comparative Law at the London Programme of the University of Notre Dame, at the International Faculty of Comparative Law, Strasbourg (since 1993), and the Bucerius Law School in Hamburg. He has extensive publications in English, European and transnational civil liability law and globalization, justice and private law enforcement.

Wildy Practice Guide Series
PERSONAL INJURY LITIGATION

Personal Injury
 Litigation

Gordon Exall
 Fourth Edition

Wildy, Statutes and Bill Publishing

4th edition

Gordon Exall

Price: £29.00
 ISBN: 9780854900862
 Extent: 281 pp
 Size: 216 x 138mm
 Binding: Paperback

This new edition of Personal Injury Litigation deals with the new rules governing road traffic claims and contains useful guidance and checklists for both claimants and defendants dealing with these claims.

This fourth edition not only brings this much used book up-to-date but enhances the original text by introducing chapters on limitation and fatal accident claims. A section on the common pitfalls and how to avoid them will help practitioners ensure that their cases run smoothly.

Personal Injury Litigation provides a wide ranging introduction to the major elements of personal injury litigation. It deals with liability, damages and procedure. It gives practical guidance on dealing with the new procedure for low value claims in road traffic cases and provides summaries and checklists for both claimants and defendants. The more difficult areas such as costs, limitation and fatal accidents are also covered with guidance on important issues like serving proceedings and drafting witness statements.

Personal Injury Litigation is an invaluable asset to trainees, newly qualified solicitors and paralegals and assumes no prior knowledge of the subject. It will also act as a practical guide for the busy practitioner.

Gordon Exall originally qualified as a solicitor and was called to the Bar in 1991. Gordon is former Executive Committee Member of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers and author of Munkman on Damages for Personal Injury and Death; Periodical Payments: The New Law and The APIL Guide to Fatal Accidents.

FINDING ENGLISH LAW:

Key Titles for non-UK Lawyers and Researchers

John Eaton

Price: £12.95
ISBN: 9780854900947
Extent: 186 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Paperback

Finding English Law: Key Titles for non-UK Lawyers and Researchers provides a listing of current and informative books on one hundred topics of English law. Each list is preceded by an instructive ‘thumbnail’ description of the legal subject giving the researcher an outline of the rudiments of the topic, by way of a quick description, a discussion of the topic’s component parts, and the details of any legislative provisions which guide the law of that subject. Each of the listings of titles orients the reader toward a roster of important titles of all types, from those written for public and student consumption, through practitioner-oriented works to the academic and theoretical. Researchers from outside the United Kingdom will find the topic descriptions and listings most useful and those based in the UK will find utility in a current, wide-ranging list of legal titles.

John Eaton is Librarian and Associate Professor of Law, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada and is co-author of Eaton & Le May: Essential Sources of Canadian Law. He is a former President of the Canadian Association of Law Libraries and is a frequent contributor to Legal Information Management, the journal of the British and Irish Association of Law Librarians.

INHERITANCE ACT CLAIMS

Second Edition

Nasreen Pearce

Price: £59.00
ISBN: 9780854900787
Extent: 450 pp
Size: 229 x 152 mm
Binding: Paperback

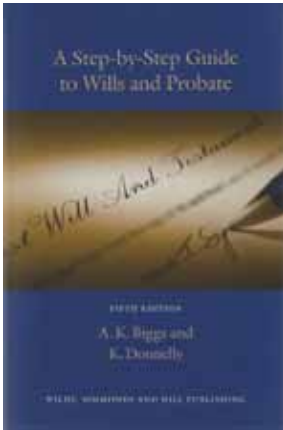

This book provides a clear, comprehensive, easily accessible and practical guide to the provisions of the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975 as amended.

Inheritance Act Claims sets out in detail material which is likely to be of assistance to lawyers and non-lawyers relating to the background to the legislation, pre-conditions and time limits for making a claim, categories of those who are entitled to make a claim, grounds on which a claim may be made; the matters to which the court must have regard in deciding a claim and the court powers to make orders including the powers of the court in respect of dispositions intended to defeat a claim, the assets out of which financial provision under the Act may be made, the position of personal representatives and trustees and the practice and procedure of making a claim.

It contains relevant information relating to cohabitants, the impact of the Civil Partnership Act 2004 and the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Acts 1990 and 2008.

The appendices include a range of sample forms and precedents, the text of the 1975 Act and the relevant provisions of the CPR.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge, and was formerly a district judge in the Principal Registry of the Family Division. She has written widely on family law and is a contributor to The Family Court Practice. She is the author of Change of Name: The Law and Practice also published by Wildy, Simmonds and Hill.

A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO WILLS AND PROBATE

Fifth Edition

A K Biggs and K Donnelly

Price:	£14.95
ISBN:	9780854900831
Extent:	190 pp
Size:	229 x 152 mm
Binding:	Paperback

A Step-by-Step Guide to Wills and Probate explains how to write a simple will, and how to deal with the affairs of someone who has died. This new edition is completely revised and updated, and is written in plain language by authors who have many years' experience in the probate offices. It explains when you can do things yourself and when you need a solicitor. The subjects covered include:

- Making your will: why do it; how to do it; appointing executors, the different gifts that can be made; how to make sure the will is valid and will be put into effect; examples
- Who may apply for probate: how to work out who, of the relatives and friends left behind, is the one to sort out a deceased person's affairs. Who inherits if there is no will?
- The estate: making sure that all the property and debts are found
- Inheritance Tax: working out if tax has to be paid, how much, and the arrangements for paying it
- Filling in the forms: essential paperwork, with examples. Will drafting/tax law/court forms and precedents updated to January 2011
- Going to court: the procedure for visiting the probate registry to finalise paperwork
- Administering the estate: collecting together the property; paying the debts, distributing the inheritances
