WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 19 Issue 10 Published Monthly

Oct/Nov 2014

This month has seen our publishing: Case Handling by Nicholas Chambers, Sexual Offences Handbook 2nd ed by Felicity Gerry, Catarina Sjolín and Lyndon Harris, A Practitioner's Guide to Mental Health Law by Michael Butler, 'Best in the West' Liber Amicorum in Honour of Prof William Butler edited by Natalia Iu. Erpyleva and Maryann Gashi-Butler, and Russian Inheritance Law by William Butler. All these are described in detail on pages 47-53 or on our website.

Pictures this month include A Short Book of Bad Judges launch and memorial for its author, Graeme Williams. We also had the launch of Justice Edwin Cameron's Justice - A Personal Account where we were entertained by the soprano, Sarah Gabriel. We also have a picture of Natalie Corthesy with her new book Commonwealth Caribbean Employment and Labour Law. Finally, we have some pictures of our stand at the IBA conference in Tokyo.

Since its inception in 2008, Wildy's has been a sponsor of the Inner Temple Book Prize. It was launched then as part of the celebrations marking the 400th anniversary of the grant of a Royal Charter to the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple. The Prize is intended to encourage and reward the writing of books which make an outstanding scholarly contribution to the understanding of the law as administered in England and Wales. To mark the 800th Anniversary of Magna Carta, the Book Prize will be awarded again in 2015 and as before Wildy & Sons will be acting as sponsors. The Inn is offering two prizes, one of £12,000 and one of £5,000 for new authors.

As I mentioned last month, we have had a lot of interest in our subscriptions services. We have had to find additional help for our team and we are pleased with how smoothly they are coping with the increased activity.

Finally, I note that the Bodleian Law Library is 50 years old this year. Wildy's was closely associated with the library when Mr Cordeaux was first establishing it. We supplied many of the books and sent our extensive card index system up to them over a period of months, to help with their establishing of their catalogue. For further information on this anniversary, please visit their website: <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/law>

The Oil and Gas Law Statute Book

2014/2015

The Oil and Gas Law Statute Book is an essential tool for students studying UK oil and gas law at all academic stages and legal practitioners in the field.

The book provides a quick reference to primary and secondary legislation in their amended and unannotated form.

The statutes and provisions that have been included in the book are primarily focused on upstream UK oil and gas operations.

This is the first volume of the Oil and Gas Law Statute Book, which will be updated annually, and is the first contribution to the Energy Law Series that Dunya Publishing will produce to supplement legal research and practice in energy law.

For when you need information now

There have been a number of new shipping titles in the past couple of months. Time Charters and Voyage Charters are now available as eBooks for, I believe, the first time. There is also a new title on Marine Insurance Fraud from our good friend Baris Soyer.

<http://www.wildy.com/isbn/9781317746201/time-charters>
<http://www.wildy.com/isbn/9781317746263/voyage-charters>

As I mentioned last month Archbold: Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 2015 is due on the 22nd November. Please try and get any orders recorded by the 10th November so that we can ensure you receive access to the eBook on the day of publication. The publisher is keen to push the eBook only option and have priced it at just £395 (+VAT). After the success of the Book & eBook packs in recent years it will be interesting to see how many people will now forsake the print edition.

Not a new book, but new to us as an eBook, is Alan Paterson's Final Judgment: The Last Law Lords and the Supreme Court. Well worth catching up on if you are one of the few that hasn't grabbed a copy of the hardback in the past 12 months.

Finally, there is some exciting news coming soon from LexisNexis regarding their Lexis-Note App. I will update you fully next month but it will be a major step forward in LexisNexis' eBook offering and it looks like there will be some good news about LexisNexis looseleaves as eBooks. Could this be the end of manually filing releases? Let's hope so! Regards,

Graham

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE IN THE COUNTY COURT A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation 6th ed

Patricia Pearl and Christopher Dodd

Price:	£19.99
ISBN:	9780854901425
Extent:	332 pp
Binding:	Paperback

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The sixth edition of this well-established book includes everything which a professional advisor or one off court user needs to be confident and successful with pursuing or defending a claim allocated to the small claims track in the county court.

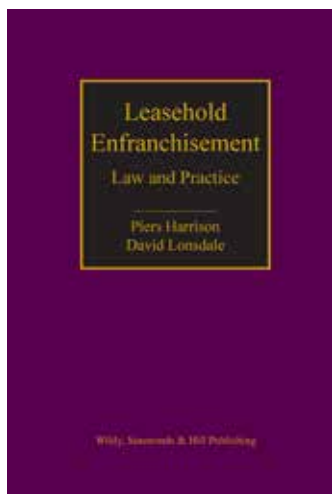

Small Claims in the County Court has been updated to take into account a large number of changes in procedure and rules over the last two years, including the increase in jurisdiction to £10,000, the introduction of the single county court and new rules and terminology concerning enforcement.

The authors demystify a process which can be overwhelming to court users. The book includes summaries of key rules and procedures and more detailed text follows. There are checklists to guide users through key stages of a court case and answers to frequently asked questions. The glossary is an invaluable tool for any court user who is unfamiliar with legal jargon. The authors have added all necessary case and rule citations and there is a full index. Key court rules plus up to date court fees are reproduced at the back of the book.

Written by authors with experience as a solicitor and a barrister but also with over 20 years combined experience as judges, this popular title will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available.

LEASEHOLD ENFRANCHISEMENT LAW AND PRACTICE

Piers Harrison and David Lonsdale

Price: £95.00
ISBN: 9780854900657
Extent: 374 pp
Binding: Hardback

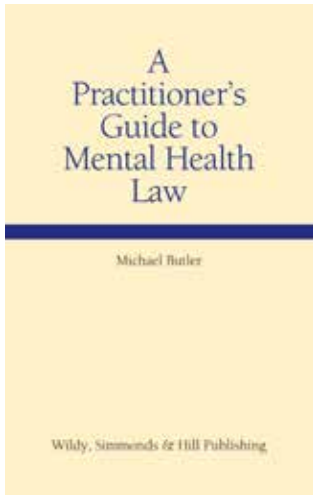

This practical book is written with the busy practitioner in mind, explaining the law in clear and simple terms and concentrating heavily on procedure. The procedural chapters make up the greater part of the book and are designed to ensure that the practitioner drafts notices without mistakes and understands the critical time limits.

Leasehold Enfranchisement contains checklists of mistakes to be avoided in the preparation of notices and clear guidance on procedure post service of the notice. The book enables the reader to find essential information easily.

Fully up to date with the new procedural rules, Leasehold Enfranchisement includes the latest forms published by the First-tier Tribunal. It is accessible and practical, providing guidance on filling in notices, and checklists of common mistakes to be avoided. The authors provide plenty of detail on how to accomplish the main task for a solicitor in this area. The book also tackles valuation in a way that a non-valuer can understand so that the solicitor understands the valuation exercise.

Piers' property practice covers all areas of property law and clients include property development companies, local authorities, government agencies and private companies and individuals. He is an editor of Landlord and Tenant Review. He has a particular interest in enfranchisement but his practice encompasses all areas of the law of real property. He is author of Service Charges & Management (3rd ed) and Megarry's Manual of the Law of Real Property (9th ed).

David Lonsdale has over twenty years' advocacy and advisory experience at all levels up to the Court of Appeal, including specialist tribunals such as the First Tier Tribunal. David's areas of particular specialisation are leasehold enfranchisement, restrictive covenants and forfeiture of commercial leases, but he accepts instructions across the range of Property law disputes as well as appearing and advising on cases in related fields such as professional negligence and insolvency. David is instructed by client companies with an international presence as well as local authorities, managing agents and individuals.

SEXUAL OFFENCES HANDBOOK Law, Practice and Procedure

Felicity Gerry
Catarina Sjölin
and Lyndon Harris

Price: £95.00
ISBN: 9780854901227
Extent: 852 pp
Binding: Hardback

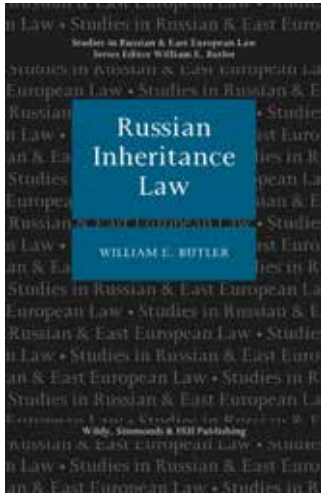

The law and procedure relating to sexual offences is notoriously complex. Since the advent of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, the law (both as to the offences and as to sentencing) changes depending on when the offence was committed, the age of the parties involved and the nature of the act committed.

This new edition of the Sexual Offences Handbook has been updated to reflect the latest law, practice and procedure in all cases involving historic and recent sexual offences, providing a step-by-step approach from the perspectives of both prosecution and the defence. Written by practitioners and academics with extensive experience of researching, preparing and presenting such trials, this practical and accessible work will prove an invaluable reference for those working within this specialised area of criminal law.

Felicity Gerry QC specialises in high profile, serious and complex fatal, sexual and violent offences. She is regularly approached to speak on international issues including human trafficking, FGM and rape in conflict zones. Felicity is described in the Legal 500 as a ‘fearless and effective advocate’ and ‘an expert in the field of sexual offences’. She has appeared on all major television and radio networks and writes regularly for the broadsheet and legal press. She holds a research post at Charles Darwin University and has a column in Criminal Law and Justice Weekly.

Catarina Sjölin is a senior lecturer at Nottingham Trent University and holds a First Class Bachelors and Masters degrees in law from Cambridge. She spent 15 years at the Bar ultimately specialising in tough cases involving a wide range of serious violence including murder, abuse of children and sexual offences (recent and historic) appearing on behalf of the defence or prosecution. She has written for Counsel Magazine and Criminal Law and Justice Weekly.

Lyndon Harris is a barrister, sentencing expert and legal commentator. Lyndon is the Editor of the Criminal Appeal Reports (Sentencing) and Current Sentencing Practice. Prior to taking those roles, he co-wrote and edited Banks on Sentence for 4 years. He sits on the board of the independent legal think tank, Halsbury’s Law Exchange. He has appeared on national television and radio in relation to the criminal law and sentencing and has written for The Times, The New Statesman and Criminal Law and Justice Weekly.

Binding: Hardback

A comprehensive introduction to the historical foundations and contemporary legislation and judicial practice regulating inheritance relations in the Russian Federation. Following an account of the development of inheritance in Kievan Rus, Muscovy, and Imperial Russia, the volume traces the twilight of traditional inheritance during the Soviet era, from the outright abolition of heritance to the gradual reintroduction of limited inheritance by operation of law. Attention is given to general provisions on the right to inherit, sources of inheritance law, inheritance by will and by intestacy, acquiring an inheritance, protection of estate property, division of the estate and expenses, defense of inheritance rights, and private international law aspects of inheritance. Relevant provisions of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation are appended.

William E. Butler is The John Edward Fowler Distinguished Professor of Law and International Affairs, Pennsylvania State University; Emeritus Professor of Comparative Law in the University of London (University College London); Foreign Member, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine and National Academy of Legal Sciences of Ukraine; Associate, International Academy of Comparative law.

CASE HANDLING
An Illustrated View from the Bench

HH Nicholas Chambers QC

Price: £10.00
ISBN: 9780854901470
Extent: 55 pp
Binding: Paperback in colour

‘Experience of all sorts at the Bar and on the Bench has led to the thought that a few timely words could avoid a lot of grief as well perhaps bringing a smile or two from the pictures.’

At the Bar Nick Chambers did a great variety of cases ranging from the miners’ respiratory claims to the Kuwait Airways litigation. On the Bench his job was to manage and try cases as the Mercantile Judge for Wales and Chester and then for Wales as well as sitting in London in the Commercial Court and other jurisdictions. He was a member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee at the time of the introduction of the Woolf reforms. He now practices as an arbitrator and mediator from Brick Court Chambers.

The Chambers family’s involvement with watercolours goes back to 1779 with an ancestor’s sketches during the Siege of Gibraltar. Since then each generation has made its own contribution including scenes from Mumbai in the V&A and the first illustrations of the rules of rugby football done at the school in 1845. Illustrations and texts from Nick’s book Missed Moments in Legal History hang in the Rolls Building. The pictures in Case Handling pay a further happy tribute to his past.

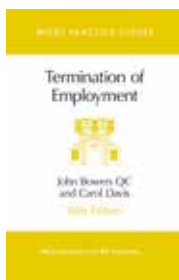

This book, with its pithy advice and attractive illustrations, makes taking the serious medicine of case handling a pleasure both for the recently qualified and anyone else with an interest in making dispute resolution work.
